

Nursery Operatives @ Crocus Windlesham

Main Purpose of the job:

Involved with all aspects of work relating to the growing and maintenance of all plant stock.

This will include all aspects of plant husbandry such as; propagation, watering, feeding, potting, stock movement, plant handling, pest and disease control and pruning, resulting in the growth of high quality plants for our customers.

Key tasks

Undertake duties which require specific skills if trained to do so, to include but not limited to:

- Weeding, watering, order selection,
- Loading and unloading deliveries
- Settling down stock
- Cultural work
- Pesticide applications, vehicle operations, pest control, irrigation procedures, plant handling and record keeping.
- Learn within your own processes plant recognition, quality observance, plant health, sizing requirements, working
- Systems and production outputs as required.
- Respect and follow stock control systems in place to provide accurate figures
- Prepare, handle and process plants for despatch within the guidelines given
- Manage, mentor, train and supervise others – depending on your role
- Help the Company to protect the health of yourself and others
- Be prepared to transfer and assist all other parts of the business as required

Full training will be provided in Key Responsibilities:

- 100% compliance with Health & Safety Policy- including but not limited to use of PPE
- Work in a way that respects and protects the environment in line with the Company's Sustainability Policy
- Comply with Crocus.co.uk Ltd Employment Terms and Conditions and all other Company policies
- Treat all Company property with respect and help to protect these valuable resources which include but not limited to buildings, machinery, vehicles, equipment, stock or materials.
- Respect all site equipment and security Own transport is essential due to hours and location.

Skills & experience required:

- Previous experience in a similar role is essential.
- PA1 and PA6 would be advantageous.
- Good communication skills.
- Ambitious, self-motivated and methodical individual who can work on own initiative and well within a multi-national team.
- Good plant knowledge and experience with hardy nursery stock and irrigation systems an advantage but not essential.

- Flexible approach and a can do attitude to ever changing priorities and workload. Hands on approach and the desire to work as part of the team, particularly during our busy periods.
- Own transport is essential due to hours and location.

To apply send your CV to hr@crocus.co.uk

Please quote CC/04/NU as your reference