Java Teak

Specifications

Material: Teak

Cushion colour: Taupe

Style: Classic

General Information

Splits, cracks and knots are natural weathering characteristics of any wooden product

Teak will adjust as it acclimatises to the garden environment in which it is situated and to varying weather conditions. This process is unlikely to adversely affect the structural strength or longevity of the product in any way

EU Timber Regulation EUTR certified to ensure timber is imported under Forest Law Enforcement Governance & Trade licensing scheme

Features and Benefits

- + 1 year structural guarantee *subject to T&C's available on www.bramblecrest.com
- + Can be left outside all season with minimal maintenance (excluding cushions)
- + Season-Proof cushions offered as an optional extra (backed with a waterproof liner to restrict water ingress)

- + Made using sustainable teak sourced from certified plantation forests
- + All benches are supplied fully assembled to provide a solid, durable product
- + Bramblecrest benches are hand-made

Care & Maintenance

Hand-wash cushion covers at 30 degrees

Bramblecrest advise against the use of teak oil. Teak oil can result in dark patchy surface areas

Remove general surface dirt with a bucket of warm detergent-free soapy water and a stiff scrubbing brush

Remove stubborn stains with sand paper when dry. Always sand with and not against the grain of the wood

If the wood is becomes rough and a smooth finish is preferred use fine sand paper to smooth off surface areas

Bramblecrest advise against the use of a furniture cover for teak garden furniture as the product needs to breathe

If left untreated the wood will develop an attractive silver/ grey patina. This is the natural colour of the wood

To maintain the original brown colour of the wood use Bramblecrest teak protector, available from www.bramblecrestdirect.com

Regardless of treatment, the life of the product (approx. 20 years) will remain relatively unchanged

In order to prevent mould, mildew or animal damage, cushions should not be stored under a cover, in a cushion storage box or cushion storage sofa throughout the year unless the cushions are kept well ventilated and a weekly visual check is carried out

Bramblecrest covers are moderately universal and are not designed to be an exact fit on any set

To prevent wind damage a bungy cord or similar can be used to secure loose material into position

When not in use covers should be dried off and stored in a clean, dry environment
